The locomotive builders were out-classed by the leaguers, but this was expected by the well-informed, as it stands to reason that athletes in daily training are better able to stand the gaff than those who only play occaonally. Despite the difference in the scores

Despite the difference in the scores the games were interesting, brilliant plays being featured by both teams. Saracino, who will next year be in the Virginia League, pulled off several one-hand cathees in centre field, while Amos and Bigble starred on the finteld.

The locomotive boys scored their only run of the afternoon in the first inning of the opener, when Saracino was safe on Cain's error, Anderson singled to left, sending Saracino to second. Tinsley hit to Ramey and Caracino was out at third on the force, Anderson going to second, Amos fanned, Tignor singled to centre, scoring Anderson, Bigble walked and Flannagan ended the session by going out on an infield tap. Snyder to Ramey, who covered the base.

The Coits umped on the offerings of Rogerson in the second inning, and sent over three runs before the third man had been retired, and in the seventh four hits, an error and two stolen bases, sent four counters across the pan.

HAMPDEN-SIDNEY PLAYS

Fifty-Minute Buttle Staged on College Gridiron—Coach Bernler Plensed With Showing.

HAMPDEN-SIDNEY, VA., September 19.—Hampden-Sidney Tigers and the Rivermont Athletic Club, of Lynchburg, battled for fifty minutes this afternoon without a score. The nearest approach to a score came in the third quarter, with Hampden-Sidney on her opponents' five-yard line, but the ball went to Rivermont on the next down. The weather was sultry, and the players suffered greatly from the heat Although Hampden-Sidney has had only two scrimmages this season, the team played in good ferm, and showed a good fighting spirit. Their opponents outweighed them considerably, both in the line and backfield, and had the advantage of maturity and experience.

This is the first time in seven years Rivermont has failed to score on an opponent. Scruggs, Menefee and McLeod played the best game for the opponents. Leod played the best game opponents.

For the Tigers, Bugg, Perkins and Pendicton starred in the backfield, while Shackleford and Adams in the line and Amick on end carried off the laurels. Coach Bernier used the following substitutes: C. Johnson, S. Johnson, Peters, Lyle, Hanes, Perkins, The line-up:

room Lynchburg High, also showed splendid form.

Coach Draper is pleased with the squad, for most of the men have weight and experience, and handle themselves well on the field.

Scrimmaging will commence Monday. More interest is being taken in the 1914 eleven than has been taken in elevens heretofore.

Professor S. H. Hubbard, of the academy, who is coaching the preps' eleven, had his charges out for light practice yesterday and to-day. Practically the entire eleven of last season is in college, but he expects to build up a strong team with the addition of new material.

COOKE TURNS IN GOOD CARD

His Recent Practice on Sora Has Not Hampered Him Much-Anderson Wins Another Leg on Lumsden Trophy Cup-The Scores.

Wednesday's shoot, and was tearing through the defenses, routing the allies as fast as he could get to them, and except for the work of Boyd would have made a clean sweep for the week at the West End traps.

A. T. Waddey, who is an old member, but a new shooter, was out for the first time, and if his first attempt is any criterion it would not take him long to make the senior class. He motored out with E. D. Harris, and did not stand on ceremony, for he took the first round by two birds and the last by one bird from him.

Jack Sheppard was out with blood in his eye. He simply buried Class "C" and in passing grabbed a leg on the Lumsden cup.

Join Easley, who hit into a slump the last two or three shoots, crimped Mac Hart and Gordon Harvie and served them notice they would have to cat out of his hand the balance of this season. They accepted service, and there will be a battle royal between them until the season ends, as they are pretty evenly matched.

Charles B. Cooke turned in a good card, and was fourth high man. His recent practice on sora with his twenty-eight-guaged gun does not seem to have hint him much.

St. George Anderson's win of another leg on the Lumsden cup trophy makes him high man, with a tie with C. W. Williams. Tignor is crawling up in this Lumsden cup trophy race, being only two points behind Anderson.

W. E. Harris, shooting in class C form, looks like a sure spoon winner in Class C.

The quail shooting members of the club will be dropping in from now until November 1, getting their shoulders and shooting eye in trim for field shooting, getting, so to speak, the "feel of the gum." The scores:
